

PAYING FOR COLLEGE 2020 - 2021

Explore. Plan. Succeed.

WHAT IS FINANCIAL AID?

Financial aid is money to help pay for your postsecondary education. Financial aid can be grants, scholarships, loans or work-study programs. Types and sources of financial aid include:

Types of Financial Aid	Sources of Financial Aid
 Merit-based Scholarships (e.g., HOPE Scholarship) 	Federal Government
Need-based Grants (e.g., Pell Grant)	State Government
Non-need Based Grants (e.g., HOPE Grant)	Colleges & Universities
(6.8.)	 Private Foundations
Student or Parent Loans	Employers & Private
Work-Study Programs	Companies
Military Aid Grants	Professional & Service Organizations

BASIC ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

In order to determine eligibility for federal and some state financial aid programs, students must:

- Demonstrate financial need or exhibit academic merit, depending on the type of financial aid
- Have a high school diploma or General Educational Development (GED) diploma
- Be enrolled in, or accepted to, an institution participating in federal financial aid programs
- Be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident or eligible noncitizen
- Have a valid Social Security number
- Meet the drug conviction criteria
- Not be in default or owe a refund on any federal or state student grant or federal or state student loan
- Be registered with the Selective Service, if required

THE FAFSA: Your Key to Financial Aid

With the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), you can apply for financial aid for multiple colleges and funding sources. Simply visit fafsa.gov to begin your online application.

The FAFSA is available beginning October 1. If you are planning to attend college fall 2021, you should complete the 2021-2022 FAFSA after October 1, 2020.

HOW IS YOUR FINANCIAL NEED CALCULATED?

In general, your financial need is determined by two factors:

- Cost of Attendance (COA) is tuition, fees, room and board, transportation and other costs associated with attendance established by the school
- Expected Family Contribution (EFC) is determined from what you report on the FAFSA

COA – EFC = FINANCIAL NEED

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

- Once you have completed and submitted your FAFSA, you will receive a Student Aid Report (SAR) in 3-5 days. Your SAR is a summary of the information you reported on the FAFSA.
- Colleges listed on your FAFSA will receive and review the Institutional Student Information Record (ISIR) after your FAFSA has been submitted. This is the information schools use to determine your aid eligibility.
- Once the school has reviewed the ISIR, an award letter is generated and sent to you via email or regular mail.
 Contact the school about their timeframe for this process.

OTHER FINANCIAL AID APPLICATIONS

The FAFSA may not be the only application you have to submit in order to receive financial aid. You may also need to complete other institutional applications. Be sure to contact your school(s) of interest or visit their website(s) to find out what other forms or applications are required.

The Georgia Student Financial Aid Application System (GSFAPPS) is also an acceptable application method for some of the scholarship and grant programs administered by the Georgia Student Finance Commission (GSFC), such as the HOPE Scholarship. You can complete the GSFAPPS on GAfutures.org.
