Selective Service Exemption Request

The Selective Service Exemption Request form can be completed by an applicant that failed to meet the requirement to register for Selective Service between the ages of 18-25 and did not knowingly and willfully not register with Selective Service.

- An Exemption does not allow for additional hours to GSFC program funding eligibility or funding cap.
- An Exemption does not change a student's grades or GPA calculation.
- The Exemption solely allows for participation in the GSFC state programs while meeting all other eligibility requirements.
